

Sterling LT8500 — cheaper than diesel

Sterling LT8500

Exempt from POLA container fees — LNG fuel can save $1 per gallon

Save money with natural gas fuel.

	Sterling	Diesel
Weekly lease with maintenance	$ 102	$ 102
Weekly fuel cost	$ 605	$ 700
Weekly total cost	$ 707	$ 802
Sterling weekly savings	$ 95	—
Sterling annual savings	$ 4,940	—

"I was surprised. This truck works great and has the power I need. Plus the automatic transmission is better than my old manual truck."

- Another satisfied Sterling truck owner

Make more money with natural gas.

Natural gas trucks are exempt from the container fee at Port of Los Angeles. This saves the shipper up to $70 per container! By partnering with the shipper, a small Clean Truck Bonus will save the shipper money — and make you more money!

POLA trips per week	10
Exempt truck bonus	$ 35
Additional weekly revenue	$ 350
Total additional annual revenue	$18,200

Sterling LT8500 Class 8 LNG Tractor Specifications

- 2010 Compliant – cleanest truck engine
- Spark ignited
- Power:
 - 320 HP 8.9-liter engine
 - 1,000 lb-ft of torque
- Automatic transmission
- Proven for port drayage

LNG fuel and station information:

Greg Roche or
Shaunt Hartounian
Clean Energy
562.493.2804

Dealer contact:

Isaac Edid
South Bay Truck Center,
Sterling
310.984.3958

Clean Energy[®]

North America's leader in clean transportation

www.cleanenergyfuels.com

Examples shown are illustrations only. Actual results may vary.